

Mwalimu Julius Nyerere Leadership School

SCHOOL BROCHURE

A black and white portrait of Julius Nyerere, an elderly man with a mustache, wearing a dark shirt. He is gesturing with his right hand, pointing his index finger upwards. The background of the entire page features a large, faint watermark of the CCM logo, which includes a circular emblem with a stylized figure and a leaf, and the text 'CHAMA CHA MAPINDUZI' and 'CCM' below it.

ABOUT

Mwalimu Julius Nyerere Leadership School

The Former Liberation Movements of Southern Africa, which include the Chama Cha Mapinduzi (CCM), African National Congress (ANC), Mozambique Liberation Front (FRELIMO), Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA), South West Africa People's Organisation (SWAPO), and Zimbabwe African National Union-Patriotic Front (ZANU-PF), jointly established the Mwalimu Julius Nyerere Leadership School (MJNLS). This institution is a modern party school with the latest educational resources and facilities.

The School is named after Julius Nyerere, the first chairman of CCM and former President of Tanzania, in honour of his significant contributions to the national liberation movements of southern Africa. It is situated in the Kibaha District, Pwani Region of Tanzania.

Construction of the School began in 2008 and was completed in February 2022. It occupies about 10 hectares of land with a total floor area of 24,600 m². The School consists of the main building, dormitory, canteen and service building, and facility building, which can accommodate 200 attendees.

The School's motto, 'Leadership for Inclusivity and Impact', reflects our commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive learning environment and our dedication to nurturing prospective leaders who will positively impact their communities.

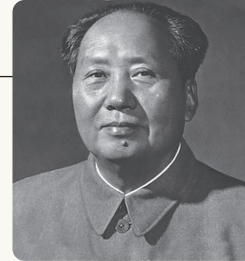

'To learn history properly is to overcome all the primitive evils of imperialism and racialism.' - Mwalimu Julius Nyerere.

The Founding Fathers

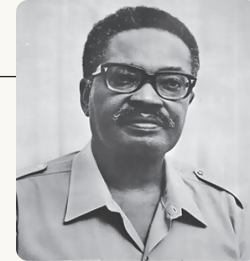

Julius Nyerere (CCM)

'To measure a country's wealth by its gross national product is to measure things, not satisfactions.'

Mao Zedong (CPC)

'Politics is war without bloodshed while war is politics with bloodshed.'

Agostinho Neto (MPLA)

'A silent idea is louder than a spoken words.'

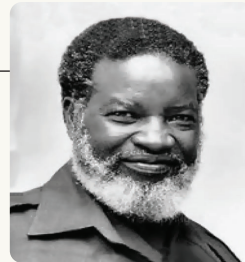

Nelson Mandela (ANC)

'Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.'

Samora Machel (FRELIMO)

'Imperialist exploitation and an unjust international economic order are a cause of war.'

Sam Nujoma (SWAPO)

'Our efforts to promote continental integration must place the education of our people at the top of our priorities, as key elements in addressing development challenges.'

Robert Mugabe (ZANU-PF)

'Africa must revert to what it was before the imperialists divided it. These are artificial divisions which we, in our pan- African concept, will seek to remove.'
